

Why do they keep making cars then Chopping their roofs off?

Fiat 500

How can they even claim that it's a convertible all it is, is a long sunroof. The cheapest model starts at £11,300 and the most expensive £14,100.

Bugatti Veyron

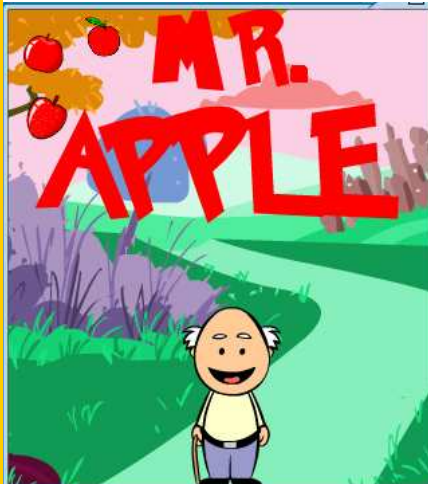

A CONVERTABLE THEY MUST BE MAD. The fastest road legal car is now available as a convertible. The Bugatti Veyrons Top Speed is 253 MPH (Miles per Hour.) It's a nice car but my problem is WHY. If you're cruising around the country at 250 mph Amazingly with the roof down all your hair would come off your head. Maybe you think it's a nice car who cares what anyone says about it, well maybe you might not like it anymore because this comes with a bill of £921,233 a lot of money. WHY

Rolls-Royce Phantom

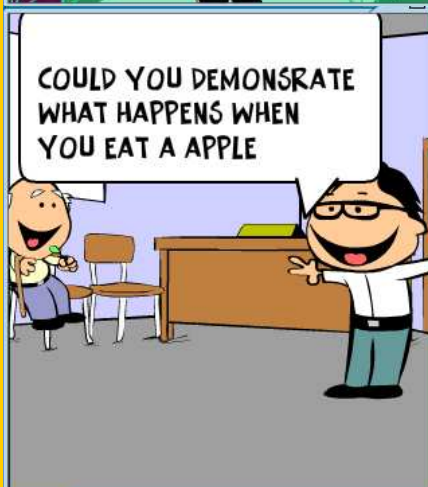

The Rolls-Royce Phantom is already out, but the convertible will be coming out this year. The Phantom is a nice expensive car a luxury fit for the Queen. There are lots of bits been hand made. The Rolls-Royce Phantom is the highest price Rolls-Royce ever, with a price tag of £305,000. It has 340 horse power engine. It does 0-60 MPH in under 6 seconds. The car is lovely but why have it in a convertible. Spend £305,000 on a car and you can only use the car on sunny days.

Its the 20th anniversary of the Simpsons. One of the most loved cartoons. The first family of the Simpsons where quite cartoony. But as views increased Matt Groening developed The Simpsons and finally they become high standard. Matt Groening is the creator of the Simpsons, but the Simpsons wasn't his original idea. His original idea was about a Bunny and Mouse fighting each other. So when he got to Fox's TV office he panicked and because he though his Cat and Mouse idea was great and wanted it for himself. So on the spot he created The Simpsons and they became big. But the Cat and Mouse idea wasn't wasted he used on the Simpsons as Itchy and Scratchy Bart and Lisa's favourite TV program. There where many Characters in the Simpsons.

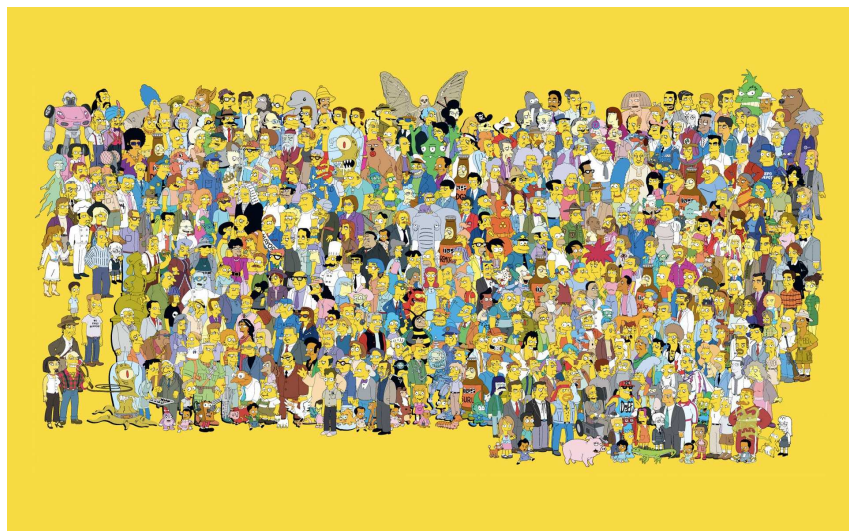

But the Simpsons family was Bart the trouble maker. Bart was Homer and Marge's son. Lisa the geek knows everything and very passionate about music. Lisa is Homer and Marge's daughter. Homer is the idiot of the family and married to Marge who is the great cooker in the family.

The Simpsons became big and Who hasn't seen an episode of the Simpsons? There is one man in America who's house is full of Simpsons anything he see's that has Simpsons on it he has to have even if it's a smelly old sock.

On the 25th of July 2007 the Simpsons Movie came out and everyone was talking about it. It was funny, stupid, weird, but amazing. And with Homer and is Spider pig no one would miss an opportunity to watch it.

Any thing that had the Simpsons name on it was amazing including there video game release of Simpsons Hit and Run. The graphics where amazing and had many missions that you would never get bored of. Hit and Run was more of a car game then anything else. And after the Simpsons movie was released The Simpsons game was released this had no cars, the graphics where also amazing. But this game was harder and was more of a challenge.

The question which is more asked about the Simpsons is why are they Yellow? Its because Matt Groening wanted them to stand out and be different.

ONLY FOOLS and HORSES

Only fools and Horses was one of the best comedy sitcoms of all time. The programme was about two brothers who own a business call Trotters Independent Traders. The two brothers try to get through money problems and many other problems. The brothers aren't alone though as they have there Grandad living with them and after there Grandad sadly dies they get joined by there Uncle Albert.

Del Trotter known as Del Boy was the oldest brother. He has his own image. Del has a different exotic cocktail each episode. e.g. Banana Daiquiri in the episode Who wants to be a millionaire? The Banana Daiquiri consists of a shot and a half of rum, a dash of triple sec, one banana, a shot and a dash of lime juice, one teaspoon of sugar. Blended together and topped of wit a cherry. Del is also well known for being engaged many times. Del eventually settles and has a baby with is fiancée Raquel.

Rodney Trotter the youngest out of the brothers. Rodney is more sensible and is more scruffy. Rodney does all of Del Boys work that he doesn't want to do. Rodney eventually gets married with Cassandra.

Grandad Trotter lived with Del and Rodney before Uncle Albert. Grandad cut in with jokes and was well known for making potatoes look like prunes.

Uncle Albert moved in with Del and Rodney after the death of Grandad Trotter. Uncle Albert was in the navy and had been around the world loads of times with no passport and every ship he sailed on sunk.

Later on Raquel got pregnant and had a baby Damien. Rodney was scared of Damien when Damien was a baby. Damien grows up to be a Gangster.

Del and Rodney's first vehicle was a reliant super-van. The van was yellow and stated the company's name on the side 'Trotters Independent Traders' When Raquel is pregnant Del buys a second hand bright green ford Capri off of Boycie.

Del Boy said many funny things and through the TV series he had almost made enough words to put into a dictionary here are just a few:

Twonk=Idiot, dipstick

Monkey=£500

Cop=Police Officer

Plonker=Idiot

Dipstick=Idiot

Wally=A twonk, Plonker or Dipstick

The Nags Head is the local pub where all the locals go for a drink and have a laugh.

Del Boy's dream could have come true in the episode Who wants to be a millionaire? An old friend of Del's comes back from Australia to find Del. They meet in the Nags Head. He offers Del a job as a manager in his Car trade business in Australia. Del loves the idea, But Rodney doesn't as usual Rodney doesn't want to move to Australia and neither does Grandad. Del gives up his dream to stay with his family in Peckham.

Hope you have enjoyed another issue of the Random Times. Next issue coming out next month.
